Fact Sheet 2019-20

Sciences founded in 1991, which has already achieved a remarkable reputation. Today, our courses of study offered by the Faculties of Civil Engineering, Design, Information Sciences, Social and Educational Sciences as well as Stadt Bau Kultur provide a well-grounded university education with strong professional prospects. Alongside the specializations of the various disciplines, the exchange of ideas between them harbors a great potential for innovative developments. We provide optimal supervision for students and research based learning as a framework for international teaching. Furthermore, our modern infrastructure as well as a strong focus on applied research in cooperation with private and public partners distinguishes us. We welcome researchers, partners and students from around the world and provide support for those who	Name	Fachhochschule Potsdam (FHP) University of Applied Sciences Potsdam
